DAYTIME HIRE

The Foundling Museum

Located near King's Cross, Holborn and Euston stations, the Foundling Museum offers beautiful historic interiors and contemporary spaces, making it a stimulating backdrop for awaydays, meetings or conferences.

We present the story of the Foundling Hospital, the UK's first children's charity and public art gallery. Founded in 1739 by the campaigner Thomas Coram, it was an innovative home for children whose mothers couldn't care for them, supported by leading artists including William Hogarth, George Frideric Handel and Charles Dickens. Their compassion and generosity show that art transforms lives. Inspired by our 300-year history of social change, today we work with outstanding contemporary artists, writers and musicians to deliver ambitious projects for young people and marginalised groups.

Situated within a Grade II-listed, Georgian-style building, the Museum houses a wealth of treasures, including Handel's will and paintings by William Hogarth, alongside works of art by leading contemporary artists.

By choosing us as your event venue, you will be making a valuable contribution to the Museum. As a registered charity, all income from venue hire supports our work with marginalised and vulnerable children.

'A seaman, a composer and a painter, and the moving story of the charity they started 270 years ago. It is a recipe of art and care... what's not to love?'

Sir Grayson Perry, Foundling Museum Trustee

Court Room

Once the gathering place for important meetings and annual dinners for the Foundling Hospital's esteemed governors, this room defines Georgian elegance.

The Court Room is one of three historic interiors from the original 18th century Hospital building, recreated here in the Museum. Decorated with striking Rococo plasterwork, the room is hung with art masterpieces by William Hogarth and Thomas Gainsborough. Many of the Hospital's governors were artists and discussions that took place in the Hospital's original Court Room played a pivotal role in the establishment of the Royal Academy of Arts.

The Court Room is a popular choice for networking events and meetings. AV equipment is available on request. This includes a Samsung 72" TV screen, lectern with integrated speakers and microphone, clicker, wireless microphones and speakers, plus Wi-Fi access.

Picture Gallery

This grand and spacious room is a recreation of the original Foundling Hospital Picture Gallery. It houses one of the stars of the Museum's art collection: William Hogarth's portrait of the Hospital's founder, Thomas Coram.

With an impressive marble fireplace, large-scale portraits and antique furnishings, this space makes a striking backdrop for larger gatherings. You can host up to 150 guests for a drinks reception (ideal for networking events or book launches), or up to 120 guests for theatre-style lectures and presentations.

The Picture Gallery can also be used as a setting for intimate recitals and performances. As an added highlight, the room is home to a magnificent 1920s Broadwood & Sons grand piano, ready to add a touch of grandeur to your event.

'You went above and beyond, helping me out with any last-minute changes, organisation and coordination. Everything was seamless. The Foundling Museum is such a wonderful space anyway but I think it's got a special place in all the guests' hearts now!'

Abigail Gilbert, William Nicolson

Study Studio

This bright, contemporary space is the perfect place for meetings or team away days. Its walls are decorated with a striking graphic mural by award-winning poet Lemn Sissay OBE, highlighting many of our favourite fictional characters including Harry Potter, Cinderella, and Han Solo, gently connecting them to children in care today.

With an abundance of natural light and views of charming Brunswick Square, this bright space is a calm setting for discussion.

Equipped with in-house AV facilities and Wi-Fi access, this multipurpose space can seat up to 50 guests theatre style or 28 guests boardroom style. We have flexible options for lunch or breakfast events. Your booking will also include free access to the Museum's unique collection.
